

Starting a business can be an attractive option for many people to earn income. Whether it be a life goal of yours or because of high unemployment, to produce extra income, or simply as a tax write-off. Canada's economy is filled with people just like you who have built their own businesses from the ground up.

It's important that you get timely professional advice. Being a small accounting firm, our preferred area of practice is small businesses. We offer the services that you need at a very competitive cost.

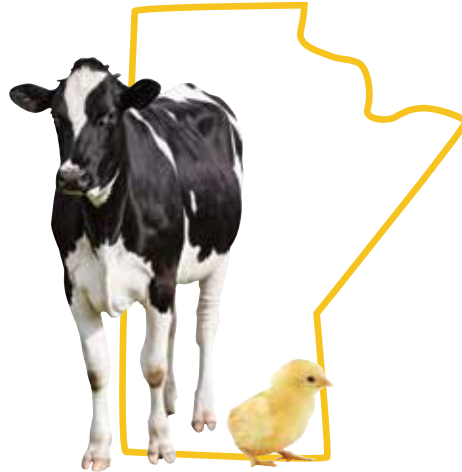

To help you get started with your business, here are some pertinent phone numbers you may need.

For more information, talk to one of our team members at Talbot & Associates to help you decide which direction you should pursue. We have the knowledge and expertise to help you make the best financial decision.
